$300,000 FIRE AT BIRMINGHAM

Firemen Injured Fighting Flames.

LOSSES ARE PARTIALLY INSURED

Fire Raged In the Business District of the City For Over Six Hours, Doing Enormous Damage—Origin of Blaze Is Not Known.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 19.—Fire which broke out in the 6-story building of the Prowell Hardware company on First avenue, near Nineteenth street, caused a loss estimated in the neighborhood of $300,000.

In addition to the destruction of the Prowell Hardware company's store and stock, the Birmingham Drygoods company's 3-story building on Nineteenth street and Morris avenue, almost directly beyond the hardware house, was burned. This building was occupied by W. B. Sternberger's cafe, the Alabama Paper and Printing company and the Birmingham Drygoods company.

The Chalifoux building, 5 stories high, and occupied by a large clothing store and numerous offices, was in the thick of the conflagration, but sustained small damage.

The Prowell Hardware company's stock was valued at $170,000 and fixtures $25,000.

The building owned by H. H. Mayberry was valued at $50,000.

Other losses were W. B. Sternberger, $8,000; Alabama Paper and Printing company, $10,000; Birmingham Drygoods company, stock and building, $40,000.

As nearly as can be ascertained the insurance amounts to about three-fourths of the loss.

Four firemen were hurt by an extension ladder falling. They are W. T. Long, T. O. Robinson, C. W. Leake and Ed Keith. Long and Robinson are badly injured, and all are in the hospital.

The department fought the flames for more than six hours.

The fire was in the center of the leading business district and directly across the street from the large Morris hotel.

The origin is unknown.

Steamer Touched at Willemstadt.

Willemstadt, Island of Curacoa, Oct. 19.—The Cuban steamer Carmelina, which left Havana Oct. 2, ostensibly for New York, having on board Manuel Silveira, of Silveira & Co., bankers, of Havana, and the representative in Cuba of J. M. Ceballos & Co., of New York, who recently assigned with large liabilities, touched at this port Oct. 8, and subsequently left here for Puerto Cabello, Venezuela, whence it is reported the party proceeded to Caracas. The Carmelina called here again Oct. 16, but remained outside the harbor. Her captain communicated with the shore and the steamer afterwards proceeded, supposedly for Havana. A man named Pino, whose identity was not established, formed one of Silveira's party.

Haddock Trial at Grays.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 19.—The trial of Alonso Haddock, on the charge of murder for the killing of Burrell Bush at Haddocks, Ga., last spring, began Thursday in Jones superior court at Grays, Ga. A bailiff was sent to Macon to look for Mamie Thompson, a young woman who was said to have been an important witness for the defense. Plans have been made for a fight of unusual interest. The civil business of the court has been cleared and everything will be ready for the Haddock trial. Judge John P. Ross is assisting Solicitor General Joseph Pottle in the prosecution, and for the defense Johnson & Johnson and Jack Barron of Grays and John T. Allen of Milledgeville will appear.

Train Reported Wrecked.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 19.—A special to the Times-Journal says that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe passenger train No. 5 is reported wrecked at Paoli, I. T. No details are available.

COOKED WIFE AND SERVED HER.

Further Details of Atrocities of the King of Annam.

Marseilles, France, Oct. 19.—The mail advices which reached here Wednesday from Indo China brought another and more revolting story of the doings of King Thanh-Thai of Annam, showing that he went to the extent of cannibalism. After killing one of his wives he caused the body to be cooked and served up for dinner, forcing his entourage to eat it under pain of death.

Some of the king's wives were bound and burned with oil and subjected to other cruelties, while naked women were thrown into the cages of wild beasts, where they were devoured before the eyes of the king. Finally the French authorities stepped in and made a prisoner of Thanh-Thai, who had been adjudged insane by Dr. Duman of the French colonial staff.

"The royal guard" has been disbanded, the palace has been placed under the protection of 150 native soldiers and the terror-stricken inmates of the palace have been rescued from further suffering. The majority of the latter were women who bore the marks of revolting tortures.

Will Try Peonage Case.

New York, Oct. 19.—The case of C. C. Swartz, arrested July 27, charged with peonage, will be brought before the federal grand jury here when Assistant State's Attorney Houston will produce his witnesses, the chief among them being Mrs. Mary G. Quackenbosh, an attorney, who made the complaint that caused the arrest of Swartz. Swartz ran an employment agency and was charged with enticing thousands of young men to go south under false pretenses to turpentine camps, to swamps of Florida, lumber mills, copper, coal and phosphate mines. Numbers of them escaped and returned north full of fever and broken in health. When Swartz was held in $3,000 bail on July 27, Mrs. Quackenbosh decided to go south and investigate. In the seven weeks' trip she visited the camps mentioned in the evidence, saw the peonage system in operation and returned suffering from fever, but with 46 affidavits.

Temperance Union to Business.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 19.—The actual business of the triennial convention of the world's Woman's Christian Temperance union in this city was began Thursday. An early forenoon devotional service in the Park Street church was followed by the opening of the convention proper in Tremont temple, the delegates being called to order by Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens of Portland, Me., vice president at large of the world's Woman's Christian Temperance union. The president, Lady Henry Somerset, being detained at home by illness, Mrs. Stevens will preside throughout the convention. Thursday evening there was a public meeting in the Tremont temple, at which addresses were made by prominent delegates.

Pressed Gun Against Head.

Moultrie, Ga., Oct. 19.—Minsey May, a successful farmer of the Robinson district of this county, killed himself in his home, with a shotgun, the muzzle of which was pressed against his forehead as he pulled the trigger. He had stated to his family that, except for leaving them alone, he would take his life, and when breakfast was announced he remained behind. Soon the gun was fired and his wife, who rushed in the room, found him dying. Mr. May was the father of Mrs. Perry Norman, about whom Derwood Hardwick was killed Sunday night by Virgil Norman, the woman's father-in-law. The affair seemed to worry the man very much and probably brought on insanity.

Croker May Visit United States.

New York, Oct. 19.—In response to a cablegram sent him by the World regarding a report that he was to visit the United States, Richard Croker sent the following message: "I have not fully decided when I will sail for America. If I go at all it will be about Christmas and only to see my friends and I will remain but a short time. There is no political significance in the visit."

BARRETT OPPOSED TO VIEW OF JORDAN

Severely Cciticizes Interview of Harvie Jordan.

HE THINKS JORDAN IS WRONG

President Barrett Takes President Jordan to Task For Statement That Present Crop of Cotton Will Be Second Largest In South's History.

Atlanta, Oct. 19.—President C. S. Barrett, of the Farmers' union, was in Atlanta Wednesday on his way to Topeka, Kan., where he will attend on Monday the conference set for that date, and which will attract prominent Farmers' union men from all parts of the south, the west and indeed the whole country.

On being asked for an opinion concerning the outlook for the cotton crop and the probable price of cotton, Mr. Barrett said:

"I can say no more than I have persistently stated every day for the past six weeks, and that is, that the farmers of the south have a splendid opportunity this year to get an adequate price for their cotton crop, provided they are not overzealous in rushing it on the market.

"The National Farmers' union convention, held in Texarkana, Tex., on Sept. 5, fixed the minimum price for the sale of cotton at 11 cents. We believed that it was right then, and we know it now. We regret that the Southern Cotton association did not stand by us instead of naming 10 cents as the price—obviously too low.

"It is a strange thing to me," continued Mr. Barrett, "that a great many people who ought to be upholding the Farmers' union, are trying to explain that it is entitled to no credit for having fixed the price of cotton at 11 cents, when the Southern Cotton association fixed it at 10 cents. Some say it is due to the weather that spot cotton has reached the price fixed by us; some say it is due to a short crop; some ascribe one reason and some another, but the overwhelming and unanswerable fact remains that, whatever is responsible for it, spot cotton has sold for 11 cents per pound during the past week.

"Of my own knowledge I can say that I know of thousands of farmers throughout the south who, when cotton was selling under 11 cents, held it for that figure, when 11 cents had been made the minimum price by the Farmers' union. Bad weather or good, storms or no storms, if the cotton producers had rushed all their cotton on the market, the price could not possibly have been pushed up to 11 cents. Fortunately, however, the Farmers' union is so systematically organized that when the convention acted, thousands accepted its advice and held their cotton until it reached the reasonable and just price fixed by us. It all shows the advantage of organization. If labor can organize for higher wages, which is just and right, and if capital can organize to make the public pay more for manufactured articles, why in the name of common sense is it not just and right for farmers to organize for their own protection and to secure a fair figure for their product? This is just what is being done through the Farmers' union.

"The best thing about our organization," continued Mr. Barrett, "is that we try to be reasonable and just. I recall, for instance, the time we refused to accede to the request of President Harvie Jordan of the Southern Cotton association, to raise the sale limit to 15 cents per pound, after that association had fixed the price at 11 cents, following the example set by us a few days previously, when he had first fixed the price at 11 cents. We felt that it was unwise and unjust to make a raise from 11 cents to 15 cents, when he had fixed the former figure as the minimum sale price. Events justified the correctness of our position, and it would have been much better for the farmers of the south if President Jordan had stood by his original action, as we did.

"As to the exact conditions today, I think that President Jordan made a great mistake in Washington a few days ago if he stated, as published, that the recent reports of storms in the gulf states were exaggerated and that the present crop of cotton would be the second largest in the world's history. That statement of President Jordan had instantaneous effect in its use by the bear interests throughout the world. The market dropped the very next day and was followed by a drop the day afterwards and the downward trend of prices was not checked until further reports of continued bad weather and damage of an extensive nature already done the crop in the fields, had the effect of checking the downward turn.

"We do not want to spread the report of large cotton crops. Even if it is true, it is not our business to be putting the world on notice to that effect."

American Bankers' Association.

St. Louis, Oct. 19.—Elastic currency reform constituted the paramount topic at Thursday's session of the convention of the American Bankers' association. Several efforts were made Wednesday by different delegates to bring the subject before the convention for discussion and action, but counter efforts were successful in thwarting this purpose for the day in order that routine reports might be presented. There was not sufficient time for the submission of all the reports and a number went over until Thursday.

Alcohol Company Organized.

New York, Oct. 19.—The Industrial Alcohol company is the name of the company organizing to handle the denaturized alcohol business of the Distillers' Securities company. It has been incorporated with a capital of $18,000,000, of which $6,000,000 is preferred and $12,000,000 common. F. M. Harrison, who is a director of the American Distributing company, a subsidiary of the Distillers' Securities company is slated for the presidency.

Demobilizing Manchurian Army.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 19.—The final step in the demobilization of Russia's great Manchurian army was taken Thursday when an order was published disbanding the staff of the army of the far east, as it is officially designated, whose commander, General Grodekoff, was lately relieved. Only a corps commander will remain in Manchuria until the completion of the evacuation of that territory. The Russian troops in Siberia are already on a peace footing.

Large Lumber Company Assigns.

Valdosta, Ga., Oct. 19.—The J. F. Bailey company, a corporation doing a large lumber business in this city, failed Wednesday, George L. Patterson being appointed receiver. The company's liabilities are placed at $25,000 and its assets are nominal. Saw mill men in this state and in Florida are the principal creditors. The recent decline in the price of lumber is said to have contributed to the company's failure.

Freight Shipments Tied Up.

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—Freight shipments to San Francisco over the Southern Pacific have again been tied up. The embargo became effective Thursday, and no more freight will be received for shipment to San Francisco or Oakland yards or forwarded. At present over 3,500 cars are standing idle on the tracks. Cars have been coming into the city at the rate of over 400 every day.

Can Pull 225 Cars.

New York, Oct. 19.—The Erie Railroad has announced that an order had been placed for three of the heaviest and most powerful freight locomotives ever designed. They will each weigh in excess of 200 tons, have 16 driving wheels, a tractive power of 98,000 pounds and will be able to pull a train of 225 loaded freight cars on a level track.

Negroes Try to Lynch Negro.

Shreveport, La., Oct. 19.—Caley Nelson, a negro, who was arrested at Marouge, La., for criminal assault on a young negro girl, was taken to Monroe for safety. An attempt was made to lynch Nelson by his own race and he was rescued with difficulty.

CUBA IS SWEPT BY SEVERE STORM

Cable Communication Broke By Cyclone.

STORM IS INCREASING IN FURY

It Is More Than Likely That Storm Has Caused Heavy Damage In Cuban Capital—Heavy Rain and Wind Storm on Coast of Florida.

New York, Oct. 19.—Cable communication with Havana, which was interrupted late Wednesday night has not been restored at an early hour Thursday. The break was undoubtedly caused by a severe storm which swept over Cuba and which was discovered by the Havana operator just before communication was lost, having reached cyclonic proportions.

Press dispatches received early on Wednesday night stated that the hurricane with rain prevailed in the Cuban capital, and that the United States troops in Camp Columbia were much discommoded.

Later the Havana operator told Key West that the storm had increased in fury and that the storm was leveling the inland wires leading from the cable house. Then follows an entire break in the telegraphic communication, and up to 9 o'clock on Thursday morning the wire connection had not been restored.

It is more than likely the storm has caused damage in Havana and its vicinity.

Key West reported that a heavy rain and wind storm had reached the Florida coast.

Review of Weather Conditions.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The general review of weather conditions issued by the weather bureau Thursday says: "A tropical disturbance of small diameter, but of great severity in and near the vortex, passed over Sand Key and Key West, Fla., at 2 o'clock Thursday morning, the maximum wind velocity at the first named station being 72 miles per hour. The disturbance is now apparently central off the southeastern Florida coast, moving north-northeast.

Smugglers Promote Dissension.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Smugglers are the chief promoters of political dissension in Santo Domingo, according to reports received at the state department concerning the unsettled condition in the little republic, and the failure of revolutionary leaders to enter into an agreement to surrender and keep the peace. Monte Christi is the headquarters for smugglers and is the center from which all recent revolutionary movements have developed. It is located near the Haitian boundary, across which it has formerly been the custom of merchants to smuggle large quantities of goods. Since the United States has undertaken to collect the customs at Dominican ports a strict enforcement of customs duties has resulted and smugglers have been much annoyed by collectors.

Lumber Firms Form Merger.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 19.—The merger of the Williams and McKinnon Lumber company, of Lumberton, N. C., Apex Lumber company, of Hamlet, N. C.; Palmetto Lumber company, of McBee, S. C., Graham Lumber company, of Durham, N. C., with numerous saw mills, thousands of acres of valuable timber lands and two small railways in the Carolinas with a paid-up capitalization of $1,000,000, has been announced here. Williams of Lynchburg is president, J. M. Barr, formerly manager of the Seaboard Air Line railroad, is a director. Lynchburg will be the home office.

Will Honor Mrs. Davis.

Waco, Tex., Oct. 19.—Mrs. J. Darrell, president of the Texas division of the Daughters of the Confederacy, has called on camps to hold memorial services next Sunday afternoon in honor of Jefferson Davis. Camps of Confederate veterans are asked to hold memorial services wherever possible.

AUTIFUL HOME WEDDING.

igginton and Miss Corpew Uni- in Presence of a Few Friends.

rose, Oct. 19.—A beautiful morn- edding was that of Mr. Allan M. nton of Miami and Miss Flossie w, which transpired at the beau- home of the bride Wednesday ing at eight o'clock.

withstanding the early hour, s number of admiring friends of ontracting parties were present ness the ceremony, which was rmed by Rev. W. S. Lawler, ac- ing to the ritual of the Methodist h, in a beautiful and impressive ner.

e home was beautifully decorated palms and Duchess roses, the ous double parlors being used for occasion.

ust at the appointed hour the bridal rty entered to the strains of Men- ssohn's wedding march, beautiful- rendered by Miss Sadie Mullen. e two bride's maids, Misses Claude eRae and Mary DaCosta of Gaines- le, preceded the bride and groom, tering from the back parlor, and proceeded to the front parlor, where e minister stood in the bay-window, hich was decorated in evergreens nd roses, and formed a fitting shrine. orrison's "Meditation" was softly layed during the progress of the cere- mony.

The bride's maids wore soft white dresses, while the attractive bride was becomingly attired in a going-away gown of blue silk, carrying a shower boquet of bride's roses and trailing ferns.

After extending congratulations the guests had an opportunity of viewing the bridal presents, which were elegant and numerous, attesting to the popularity of the young couple.

Miss Corpew is the charming daughter of Mrs. M. Corpew. Having lived here since early childhood, and by her attractive ways, she has endeared herself to all.

Mr. Wigginton is a young man of sterling worth and for some years has been connected with a large gents' furnishing house in Miami.

After a tour of the State, Mr. and Mrs. Wigginton will return to Miami, their future home.

Engine and Freight Cars of Seaboard Were Ditched Friday.

The second accident within the week occurred in the yard of the Seaboard Air Line Friday afternoon, but in neither instance did the damage amount to anything more than the destruction of property, there being no lives lost or no one injured.

Friday afternoon a freight train, south bound, jumped the track. An engine and three or four box cars left the rails near the water tank, blocking the track to such an extent that the Cedar Key passenger, due here at 5:36 o'clock, could not pass.

A wrecking train arrived in the evening, and it is calculated that the track will be clear by morning.

A DELIGHTFUL OCCASION.

Granite Shower Tendered Miss Corpew by Mrs. O. C. Husband.

Melrose, Oct. 19—A distinctly local shower of a very pleasing description fell in Melrose on Monday afternoon for the special benefit of Miss Flossie Corpew in the shape of a granite shower given by Mrs. O. C. Husband, and the many friends assembling at 4 o'clock were received by the hostess and ushered into the parlor, which was most prettily and gracefully decorated with trailing ivy and pot plants.

After a refreshing cup of tea, Miss Sadie Mullen and Miss Nora Husband entertained the guests with some delightful music, after which the hostess invited the bride to lead the way to an adjoining room to view the many useful pieces of granite-ware displayed on a long table. The proverbial rain of "cats and dogs" was nowhere to this shower of pots and pans and kettles of every size and description. The rhymes accompanying many of the gifts were most amusing and appropriate.

Later on delicious refreshments were served in the dining-room, the color scheme of decorations being pink and green.

NEGROES GAVE BOND.

Alleged Gamblers Will Have Hearing in Mayor's Court Monday.

The nine negroes arrested by Officer Chas. Pinkoson Thursday afternoon upon a charge of gambling were arraigned in the mayor's court Friday morning. They were represented by Attorney Evans Haile, who had the case postponed until Monday, and the men were released under bond of $20 each.

For Toting a Pistol.

The carrying of concealed weapons has proved a costly proposition to those who have been apprehended, and there are many; but it does not seem to have the warning effect upon others who persist in violating this law, with the result that the coffers of the county are frequently increased to the extent of a heavy fine.

The latest victim recorded is Steve Thigpin, a negro who was arrested in Newberry by Constable J. D. Siford and convicted in Justice Henderson's court, being fined $100 and costs or six months in the "gang."

Thigpin being financially embarassed, was brought across country by Officer Siford to jail in this city, but upon his arrival here found a party awaiting him to pay the money, when Thigpin was released.

First Annual Convention.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 19.—Thursday the twenty-first annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew assembled in Memphis, over 200 delegates from all parts of the United States being present. Bishop Thomas F. Gailor welcomed the delegates, and the anniversary sermon was preached by Rev. Peter Gray Sears, rector of Christ church, Houston, Tex. A business meeting was held in the afternoon.

SOUTH BOUND TRAVEL.

Thirty-Six Passengers in One Body Bound For St. Petersburg

Travel on all south-bound trains is unusually heavy for this season of the year, which is naturally an evidence that the season will be an early and a large one. Already there are many strangers in Gainesville, and many who usually come in November and December are already here for the winter.

The south-bound passenger train over the Atlantic Coast Line Thursday had an extra coach, this coach being used for the accommodation of one "block" of thirty-six passengers from the Northwest, with St. Petersburg as their destination.

The boarding houses and hotels of Florida will reap a good harvest the coming season.

Preacher Under Heavy Bond.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 18.—Charged with using the United States mails in furthering a scheme to defraud, Rev. A. M. Kelly, the promoter of the Beulah religious land settlement in Dickinson county, Tennessee, was arrested, brought to Nashville and taken before the United States commissioner. He was held in $1,000 bond, which he gave. Kelly came to this state about two years ago from Illinois. He is said to have induced a number of families to settle in Dickinson county through false representations. Many of his alleged victims are from the north.

Killed Woman and Himself.

Maysville, Ky., Oct. 18.—Thomas O'Regan, a baker, shot and killed Mrs. Becky Bradford and later threw himself in front of a moving freight train and was instantly killed. The couple quarreled. Immediately after the shooting O'Regan fled and just before the officers reached him he dashed in front of a train.

Norcross, Ga., Oct. 19.—Pomp Henkle is dead from drinking wood alcohol. He entered a doctor's office and seeing a bottle labeled alcohol, drank a quantity of the poisonous stuff and as a result he is a corpse.

The Eastern Eye.

The eyes of the yellow people are not oblique, notwithstanding that they appear to be. The line adjoining the commissures of the eyelids divides the eye into two equal parts, and is exactly at right angles with the axis of the nose. It is not always so; the exception is much less frequent than in the whites, for, as a general rule, it is in the latter that the eyes are not at right angles with the axis of the nose.

SOLDIERS' HOME IN FINE SHAPE.

Trustees Met and Inspected the Building—Number Veterans 110.

Atlanta, Oct. 19.—The regular quarterly meeting of the trustees of the Soldiers' home was held Wednesday at that institution, which was minutely inspected in every department by the trustees and found to be in a highly satisfactory condition.

The quarterly report of the secretary, the surgeon and superintendent were submitted and approved. The number of veterans now on the rolls of the home, including those absent on leave, is 110, seven of whom were admitted during the past quarter. During that time five of the old soldiers died, but no deaths occurred within the past 30 days.

Superintendent Robert L. Barry was instructed to repair the roof, which was in a leaking condition.

A committee consisting of President H. W. Bell, Vice President W. H. Thomson, C. D. Phillips, Surgeon L. C. Brewer, Secretary W. H. Harrison and Dr. Amos Fox was appointed to advertise for plans and bids for the immediate erection of the new hospital. This committee is also authorized to select the site for the hospital. An appropriation of $7,500 was made by the last legislature for its erection.

Ins and Outs.

Bronzed by foreign suns, he entered the office of his colleague, but the cashier's chair was vacant.

"Is Mr. Smith out?" he asked anxiously. "I am an old friend of his."

"No, sir," returned the clerk. "Mr. Smith is not out. He won't be out for sixteen years."

Here the clerk smiled grimly.

"The firm is out, though," he went on, "one hundred thousand, just."—New York Press.

AUTIFUL TRIBUTES TO B. F. JORDAN

s Held Most Impressive Me- rial Service Thursday Night.

E MEETING WAS TOUCHED

Was One of the Saddest and Most pressive Ceremonies the Local Lodge Has Ever Known, and Had Its Effect on All—Resolutions.

ne of the most impressive services held in Gainesville was the morial service held by Gainesville dge No. 990, B. P. O. Elks, which minated the regular meeting of that ening Thursday night.

The service was held in memory of ther Birkett Fry Jordan, one of the st beloved members of that order, death of whom occurred Wednes- morning.

Exalted Ruler Henry S. Chubb paid most touching and beautiful tribute the life and character of the deceas- which at times was so pathetic and ore that it was difficult for the mbers of the lodge present to re- from dropping a few tears.

Col. Chubb was followed by Rev. ncis H. Craighill, a member of the dge and also rector of Holy Trinity piscopal Church, of which deceased was a member and an active worker. Craighill's eulogy was also beauti- l, touching largely upon his inti- te acquaintance in both social and urch life with the deceased. Rev. B. Rogers of the First Baptist urch also paid a most pathetic and ving eulogy to Mr. Jordan, and that he agreed with his brother, exalted ruler, that if the angels of aven had come among the members Gainesville Lodge for a subject for nal blessedness, there could have en found no Elk more ready to rifice, or more fittingly prepared to et his God, than Brother Jor- n.

Every member of the order present o had a personal acquaintance with deceased brother expressed him- lf, and in all, the scene was a touch- g one, but a tribute well earned and ll deserved.

At the conclusion of these tributes, ring which an impressive solemnity igned, the following resolutions were animously adopted:

Resolutions.

"Whereas, The Grand Exalted ler of the Universe in his inscrut- le wisdom, has deemed it proper to mmon the spirit of Brother Birkett Jordan from association with his thers and friends upon this mun- ne sphere to perpetual rest and ace in the Grand Lodge of Eternity, d

"Whereas, We are deeply conscious the great loss sustained, both by e city of Gainesville and this lodge the death of this brother, who, roughout a long life, was a citizen the highest type, an exemplar of e fraternal precepts of our order, d was loved and respected by every- e in our community, therefore be it

"Resolved, That Gainesville Lodge . 990, Benevolent and Protective der of Elks, deeply sensible of it's ss in the death of Brother Jordan, mmemorates his virtues and gives pression to the esteem and affection which he was held by every mem- r of this lodge; be it further

"Resolved, That the sympathy of s lodge be extended to his family, d his sorrowing relatives and friends, d that a copy of these resolutions be rnished his family, the local press, e Times-Union and the same en- rossed upon the minutes of this dge.

The First Steam Power.

The power of steam was known to ro of Alexandria, who exhibited veral centuries before the Christian era a small steam engine to Ptolemy Philadelphus and his court about 150 C. Pliny describes a small boat ven by a "magician" of Rome which ved by means of a wheel "driven by ans of hot water." Watt's invention a rotary steam engine was patented 1769. The first railway locomotive s built by Trevithick in 1804. The t practical locomotive was perfect- by Stephenson in 1829. As early as 1707 Denys Papin built a model of a steamboat, which was destroyed by a mob of boatmen. The first practical steamboat was built by William Sym- gton in 1802. In 1803 Robert Fulton in connection with Chancellor Living- ston built a steamboat, which was tried on the Seine. In 1807 the Cler- mont began trips from New York to Albany.

USED DYNAMITE TO CHECK FIRE.

Business Section of Seneca, Destroyed by Flames.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 19.—The town of Seneca, S. C., was visited by fire, and property worth about $75,000 was destroyed. The property was insured for $25,000.

The fire originated in the Oconee Inn, a new brick hotel, which was totally destroyed. The Palmetto hotel, recently completed, together with the stores of Hunt & Harper, Luther Moore, and Stribling's pharmacy were burned.

Both hotels were well filled with guests and there were several narrow escapes. The doors of several rooms were forced in in order to rescue the occupants.

Rumors were circulated early that the fire was the result of incendiarism and was started by negroes in revenge for the destruction of a negro college by dynamite at that place on Sunday night last. Later investigation, however, showed that there was little on which to base the rumors. The negro population of the town did everything in its power to stay the progress of the flames.

As the town had no fire apparatus, it was necessary to use dynamite to check the fire.

Called His Bluff.

"What!" cried the brutal husband. "You gave that old overcoat of mine to a tramp? You should have asked me first. I had placed a hundred dollars in bills in one of the pockets of that coat, simply to have the money in a safe place until you should want to purchase some clothes." "William Henry Suddsworthy," replied the fond wife, fixing him with a judicial eye, "you worked that game on me two years ago. I went through the pockets of that coat and found a wornout glove, six cloves, five cardamom seeds, four matches and a suburban time card. I'm going shopping for my dress tomorrow."

One Eyed Giants.

Sir John Mandeville saw all sorts of queer things and wrote about them in his celebrated book of travels. It was in 1536 that the veracious John visited a certain group of isles (yles he called them) which was inhabited by a race of one eyed giants. Of them he says: "In one of those yles ben folk of grete stature, as giantes, and they been hideous for to loke upon. An thei han but on eye, and that is in ye middyl of ye front." He also tells of another one of these "yles" inhabited by a race of one legged dwarfs, each having three eyes.

Nothing but Fruit.

"I say, I'd give anything to be as strong and healthy as you are," remarked the lazy man. "What do you live on?"

"Nothing but fruit," answered the other.

"What kind of fruit?"

"The fruit of industry," was the brief but significant reply.

SALVE FOR THE SLAP.

A Box on the Ear and a Box With a Diamond Ornament.

The following anecdote was written autobiographically by Mme. Feuillet, wife of the famous French writer. At the time of the incident she was a young girl of seventeen, living with her parents in a provincial town of which her father was mayor. One day news came that Louis Napoleon intended passing through and would spend one night in the town. As mayor Mme. Feuillet's father had to arrange the details of the reception and festivals to be given in the emperor's honor, while it was agreed that his daughter must present him with a bouquet at the ball to be given in the evening.

Father and daughter were pleased enough, but one person in the mayor's household suffered acutely. Mme. Feuillet's mother was an ardent royalist, and to her the new imperial dynasty appeared an intolerable usurpation. According to her daughter, the arrangements for Napoleon's arrival pulled her two ways. She was pleased that her daughter should have been chosen for prominence, anxious that her ball dress should be the most becoming possible, proud in her maternal instincts and at the same time exasperated, reluctant, furious a royal reception should be given at all to a man she considered an upstart and an adventurer. The day came, and the future Mme. Feuillet, with a string of other young girls dressed in white, was placed along the line of procession. When it passed everybody shouted and cheered, and the girl, carried away by the excitement on every side of her, did the same. Suddenly she felt a burning, stinging sensation upon one cheek, and before she could realize what had happened she was being dragged back out of the crowd by her mother, whose face was crimson and whose eyes were blazing with anger. Then the girl understood. Unable to bear her own daughter joining the enemy and crying out "Long live Napoleon!" she had publicly and furiously boxed her ears and was now dragging her ignominiously home like a child in disgrace.

The girl spent the afternoon on her bed sobbing with the shock and the shame of what had happened. The great big bouquet for the evening stood in a jug and perfumed her little bedroom; her snowy ball dress lay spread over a chair. She dressed finally, feeling the savor gone out of life, but when from under an arch of flowers in the ball room she made her little speech and presented her bouquet excitement returned to her. Louis Napoleon took them, she thought, somewhat coldly, and, being very pretty as well as seventeen, the girl felt chilled and a little inclined to go over to the political views of her mother. But the next morning as Louis Napoleon was stepping into his carriage to leave he asked that she might be sent for. When she came he thanked her again for the beautiful bouquet of bright flowers she had given him the evening before—though they had not been more bright than the lovely eyes above them—and in return he begged her to accept a small remembrance of his pleasure and gratitude. The carriage left, and the girl opened the little case he had put in her hands. A beautiful diamond ornament lay on a surface of white velvet.—Paris Annales.

Lest We

Forget—baby is restless, can't sleep at night, won't eat, cries spasmodically. A bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge never fails to cure. Every mother should give her baby White's Cream Vermifuge. So many times when the baby is pale and fretful, the mother does not know what to do. A bottle of this medicine would bring color to his cheeks and laughter to his eyes. Give it a trial. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Animals' Queer Ways.

Birds as well as four footed animals and insects often avail themselves of the labors of others in home making. I have a photograph of a barred owl nest in a remodeled hawk nest. Skunks use woodchuck burrows, white footed mice and flying squirrels are fond of building holes in decaying trees made by woodpeckers, and bumblebees take possession of mice nests in the ground. —St. Nicholas.

Should Help Himself.

"Yes," young Mr. Tinsmith admitted; "I've always been bashful among the girls."

"But why should you be?" asked Miss Yern encouragingly.

"I can't help myself."

"Gracious!" she exclaimed, pursing up her lips. "If you don't help yourself, how can you expect to get any?"

VEIRA GOES TO CASTRO.

Defaulter Is Heard From at Porto Cabello.

York, Oct. 19.—The steamer Carmelina, with Manuel Silveira, Cuban banker, whose recent disarance from Havana was said to brought about the failure of Ce- & Co., his wife and two chil- steamed into Curacao a week last Sunday, according to Cap- Bennett and several of the pas- rs and the crew of the steamer of the Red D. line, which ed here from Curacao and Ven- an ports.

B. Chase, a representative of a r company of this city, who re- d on the Zulia from La Guayara, the Carmelina put into Curacao on Sunday, Oct. 7, and left on forenoon of the following day, taking on coal, and ostensibly Porto Cabello.

"I was curious enough to look up Carmelina's passenger list," said Chase, "and I found the names of veira, his wife and two other Sil- ras, presumably children. I was d that they landed at Curacao, say- that they were going to New ork, probably on the Zulia. I learn- that they shortly afterwards went Porto Cabello. I thought it range that they should go to New ork from Havana by way of Cura- ao.

"Nobody paid much attention to the Carmelina," said Mr. Chase, "be- ause none of us knew anything about veira or his connection with the ailure of Ceballos & Co."

Subsequently the same story was old by Captain Bennett, who said he ecognized the Carmelina as she came nto Curacao and supposed she was hort of coal.

DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which are printed upon its wrapper and have the unqualified endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and read the numerous extracts from standard medical authorities praising the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are made, and don't forget that no other medicines put up for sale through druggists for domestic use can show any such professional endorsement. This, of itself, is of far more weight and importance than any amount of non-professional testimonials.

The "Favorite Prescription" cures all woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and draging-down sensations in lower abdomen, accompanied by weakening and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred symptoms.

Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists may be consulted free by addressing as above. All correspondence is treated as sacredly confidential. By consulting in this way the disagreeable questionings and personal "examinations" are avoided.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains some very interesting and valuable chapters on the diseases peculiar to women. It contains over one thousand pages. It is sent post paid, on receipt of sufficient in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, or 21 cents for a copy in flexible paper covers, or 31 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R.V. Pierce, as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach liver and bowels. One a laxative, two or three cathartic.

Campaign Funds Sued For.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 19.—An accounting of the sum of $170,012, alleged to be the amount of the Republican campaign fund for last year in this city, was demanded in a suit filed by Louis H. Keuez, a former city employe, who says he contributed $15 to the fund. The petition asks for an accounting and for the distribution among the contributors of $140,000, believed to have been in hand when the campaign expenses were paid. The finance committee and its individual members are made defendants. The petition gives among the alleged contributions the sum of $6,250 from federal employes, $625 from state officials, from private corporations $59,500, and from public service and steam railways $50,000. The suit was filed in the common pleas court.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to, I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better, and continued to improve until I was entirely well." Want Work on Road Discontinued.

Hong Kong, Oct. 19.—A report has been received from Canton that the board of commerce at Pekin had telegraphed the viceroy requesting a discontinuance of the construction of the Whampoa railway on account of the representations that the projected line was opposed to the Kow Loon-Canton railroad. The viceroy replied, it is said, that he was unwilling to discontinue the work for the reason that the commencement of the Whampoa road was anticipated by the owners of the Kow Loon line.

'OPOSSUM BITE FATAL.

Young Man Meets Death In Most Unusual Way.

Indian Springs, Ga., Oct. 19.—Death from the bite of a 'possum is the fate that overtook young Will Thompson while out on a 'possum hunt.

The young man is a son of Dutch Thompson, one of the most prominent and highly respected farmers of Butts county. Accompanied by a party of half a dozen young men friends he went out in search of 'possums and on the outskirts of Flovilla the dogs treed one and the young men gathered around and hewed at the trunk until it cracked.

As the tree in its fall neared the ground the 'possum sprang from the branches and lighting on the shoulders of Mr. Thompson, buried its teeth in the young man's neck at the base of the brain and crunched his spinal cord, killing him instantly.

The dogs caught the 'possum and killed it and in the darkness and excitement it was not noticed that Mr. Thompson was seriously hurt until members of the party went with torches to raise him from where he had fallen, and it was seen that death had ensued from the bite.

Burton Ordered to Prison.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The mandate of the supreme court of the United States in the case of former United States Senator Burton, under conviction and sentence for a violation of his oath as a senator, was issued Wednesday by the clerk of the court. The document is directed to the United States circuit court for the eastern district of Missouri and merely notifies that court of affirmance of its judgment by the supreme court. This is a notice to the trial court that it is at liberty to execute its sentence.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. FOUND RELIEF BY TAKING PE-RU-NA

MRS. ANNA MUNDEN

There can be no doubt about it that the tendency to resort to surgical operations has been too great in the past and that this harmful tendency is growing less every day.

Experience has demonstrated that many ailments which seemed to require surgical operations in the past are now being cured by the use of harmless remedies. Peruna has done as much as any other remedy to establish this very important fact.

SURGICAL OPERATIONS AVOIDED.

Thousands of people have been condemned to undergo surgical operations. Their physicians have told them that they must either submit to such operations or lose their lives.

After this they have resorted to Peruna and found relief.

Other good remedies have accomplished the same result, but it is safe to assume that no other remedy has equaled Peruna in its beneficent work.

Many of the alleged incurable derangements of the pelvis are dependent upon catarrh.

There is no cure for these except the removal of the catarrh.

Peruna seemingly works miracles in some of these cases. The explanation, however, is very simple. Peruna removes the catarrh and Nature does the rest.

The silent sufferings of the mind, as it undertakes to unravel the tangled thread of life and affection, are unwordable. It has no spoken language. It tells its story in the sunken eye, the shattered nerve, the silvry hair, the furrowed brow. It's a sad story that needs no tongue—its eloquence is in the hush that attends. Watch the throng that's passing now—you'll catch the message, for such a suffering heart speaks in whispers. It dreads the listening ear and evades the nameless fiend who would increase the torture by his ruthless gossip.

The bids for the sale of the iron and other junk—the remnants of the machinery that was taken to Panama by the French, have been opened by the canal commission. There were seventeen bids, ranging from nearly $60,000 to less than $25 000. The junk aggregates about 7,200 tons and will net the commission $9,872.

A woman's club in an Illinois town has been earning $100 a month selling cheap, hygienic and palatable lunches to school children. Is not that better than standing up with white kid gloves on and reading long, dull papers full of shallow platitudes filched out of encyclopedias?

A Massachusetts woman, Mrs. Mary Barrows, has been cured of leprosy at the State leper colony on the island of Penikee and discharged therefrom after having been detained two years. The physicians say that leprosy invariably responds to proper treatment.

Ocala had a big day at the laying of the corner-stone of the court house on the 17th inst. Two thousand people partook of the barbecue, and many more listened to the joint debate between Governor Broward and Hon. John Beard on the drainage question.

Football enthusiasts are beginning to study the new rules. The game will be played in a less dangerous manner than heretofore, but plenty of opportunities for broken bones and smashed features will remain to keep up the interest.

Just because you don't happen to think like your neighbor, you stand aloof like an enemy. Oh, if the jarring would only hush for one moment and your hearts for once could really touch. In the inmost soul, at last, we are all akin.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.

RISKED HIS LIFE.

an Enterprising Reporter Got the News For His Paper.

doubtedly the boldest undertaking the part of a reporter to score a " ever known in the history of erican journalism was when Thom- Fielders of the New York Times ed from a steamer in New York or at odds of about 100 to 1 of drowned and brought in the first ic story of the loss of the ocean Oregon. It is the custom of New dailies to send reporters down bay to meet incoming steamers it is known there is "big news" rd. On the ground that it is bet- to be safe than sorry the editors atch the reporters by special per- on a government revenue cutter lse on a specially chartered tug, a view to catching their game re the ship docks. It was known one afternoon that a North Ger- Lloyd steamer was not far out, every city editor in New York laid ns for sending reporters to meet the coming liner.

Fielders was one of these. He man- ged to get aboard the big steamer far own the bay and went among the sur- rors of the Oregon disaster and ob- ined some thrilling tales of escape. took notes enough to write a book ut the sinking of the ship, with inute details of heroic rescues and lenty of what newspaper men call human interest" stories. Then time egan to wear heavy on his hands. It was getting late at night and the ship had not yet passed quarantine. To make matters worse, the captain said that he would allow no one to leave the ship until she had made her way clear of quarantine. Fielders vainly pleaded that he was not a passenger and therefore was not amenable to the inspection of the ship by the health officers. His remonstrances were unavailing. The captain was obdurate.

Ten o'clock came. The city editor of the Times paced nervously around the night desk, repeatedly asking, "Where on earth is Fielders?"

Out there in the bay Fielders, wrought to a pitch of anger almost sufficient to impel an assault upon the exacting captain, looked vainly at the dimpling stream of light from his tug as she lay out in the darkened waters waiting for him. The captain of the steamer would not permit the tug to come any nearer to his ship. Fielders stood beside the rail, loudly remonstrating with the man commanding the big ship. He stealthily placed one leg over the rail, then the other. Then there was a splashing sound below and a chorus of shouts from the passengers. The reporter was overboard! Out in the rippling light his body was seen to rise, and as it did the daredevil began swimming toward his tug. His comrades had thrown out a line at a signal from him previously given, and he made for that line. Would he ever get it? Could they see him, a mere speck on the dimly lighted water? He gained a hold on the rope, was pulled aboard the tug and gave orders for her nose to be turned toward the Manhattan shore with all possible speed. The Times contained a full and graphic story of the loss of the Oregon the next morning.—Remson Crawford in Success Magazine.

Only One King Buried in Iceland.

In Iceland it is the boast of the native that "only one king is buried here." That was King Roerek of Norway (vide Snorri Sturluson's Saga, "Heimskringla"), whom King Olaf the Holy "shipped," with the significant hint that he need not be in any hurry to return to his native land. Roerek, who was a shrewd, peaceably minded monarch, took the hint, went to Iceland and a thousand odd years ago settled down to farming "at a little stead height, Calfskin, where were but few serving folk, and there he dwelt and on the fourth winter got the illness which brought him to his bane. So, it is said, he is the only king that rests in Iceland."

WHY CYPRESS WOOD SINKS.

Washington Scientists Made a Most Singular Discovery.

Southern lumbermen take great delight in a story of certain scientific gentlemen who were sent by the government at Washington to study the growth and uses of the bald cypress at a time when cypress lumber was comparatively new to the market. They went direct to a large camp, presented credentials to the superintendent and watched with minute care the processes of cutting the timber and floating it down stream.

Cypress is a light, spongy wood that grows in swamps and absorbs water readily. The scientific gentlemen requested the superintendent to throw some logs into the river separate from the main rafts and followed their progress down stream in a boat. After floating south for some distance the logs with one accord sank. Much surprised, the scientific gentlemen returned and followed another consignment. The phenomenon was repeated; at a certain distance from the camp all the logs sank.

The gentlemen from Washington, being very scientific, did not think to question the unlettered superintendent about the power of cypress to become waterlogged, but after numerous observations and much comparing of notes reported to their department the startling discovery that cypress floated north of a certain parallel of latitude and south of it invariably sank. Of the cause they were not yet certain, but hazarded the suggestion that it might lie in the rotary motion of the earth, increasing in speed as the logs approached the equator until it was powerful enough to draw them under.—Philadelphia North American.

A Horse's Age.

The age of a horse cannot always be told by looking at its teeth. After the eighth year the horse gets no more new teeth, so that this method is useless for a horse more than eight years old. As soon as the set of teeth is complete, however, a wrinkle begins to appear on the edge of the lower eyelid, and another wrinkle is added each year, so that to get the age of a horse more than eight years old you must count the teeth plus the wrinkles.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

A Most Worthy Article.

When an article has been on the market for years and gains friends every year, it is safe to call this medicine a worthy one. Such is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It positively cures coughs and all pulmonary diseases. One of the best known merchants in Mobile, Ala., says: "For five years my family has not been troubled with the winter coughs. We owe this to Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Killed Son and Self.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Bernard Clohr, a Russian laborer, shot and fatally wounded his son, 21 years of age, and then committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid. The son had prevented Clohr from killing his mother, and the father, enraged at this, entered his son's room while the latter lay asleep and shot him twice in the back.

RISKED HIS LIFE.

an Enterprising Reporter Got the News For His Paper.

...doubtedly the boldest undertaking ...the part of a reporter to score a ...t" ever known in the history of ...rican journalism was when Thom... Fielders of the New York Times ...ed from a steamer in New York ...bor at odds of about 100 to 1 of ...g drowned and brought in the first ...blic story of the loss of the ocean ... Oregon. It is the custom of New ...k dailies to send reporters down ... bay to meet incoming steamers ...n it is known there is "big news" ...ard. On the ground that it is bet... to be safe than sorry the editors ...atch the reporters by special per... on a government revenue cutter ...lse on a specially chartered tug, ... a view to catching their game ...re the ship docks. It was known ...y one afternoon that a North Ger... Lloyd steamer was not far out, ...l every city editor in New York laid ...ns for sending reporters to meet the ...coming liner.

Fielders was one of these. He man...ged to get aboard the big steamer far ...own the bay and went among the sur...vors of the Oregon disaster and ob...ined some thrilling tales of escape. ...e took notes enough to write a book ...bout the sinking of the ship, with ...inute details of heroic rescues and ...enty of what newspaper men call "human interest" stories. Then time began to wear heavy on his hands. It was getting late at night and the ship had not yet passed quarantine. To make matters worse, the captain said that he would allow no one to leave the ship until she had made her way clear of quarantine. Fielders vainly pleaded that he was not a passenger and therefore was not amenable to the inspection of the ship by the health officers. His remonstrances were unavailing. The captain was obdurate.

Ten o'clock came. The city editor of the Times paced nervously around the night desk, repeatedly asking, "Where on earth is Fielders?"

Out there in the bay Fielders, wrought to a pitch of anger almost sufficient to impel an assault upon the exacting captain, looked vainly at the dimpling stream of light from his tug as she lay out in the darkened waters waiting for him. The captain of the steamer would not permit the tug to come any nearer to his ship. Fielders stood beside the rail, loudly remonstrating with the man commanding the big ship. He stealthily placed one leg over the rail, then the other. Then there was a splashing sound below and a chorus of shouts from the passengers. The reporter was overboard! Out in the rippling light his body was seen to rise, and as it did the daredevil began swimming toward his tug. His comrades had thrown out a line at a signal from him previously given, and he made for that line. Would he ever get it? Could they see him, a mere speck on the dimly lighted water? He gained a hold on the rope, was pulled aboard the tug and gave orders for her nose to be turned toward the Manhattan shore with all possible speed. The Times contained a full and graphic story of the loss of the Oregon the next morning.—Remson Crawford in Success Magazine.

Only One King Buried in Iceland.

In Iceland it is the boast of the native that "only one king is buried here." That was King Roerek of Norway (vide Snorri Sturluson's Saga, "Heimskringla"), whom King Olaf the Holy "shipped," with the significant hint that he need not be in any hurry to return to his native land. Roerek, who was a shrewd, peaceably minded monarch, took the hint, went to Iceland and a thousand odd years ago settled down to farming "at a little stead height, Calfskin, where were but few serving folk, and there he dwelt and on the fourth winter got the illness which brought him to his bane. So, it is said, he is the only king that rests in Iceland."

WHY CYPRESS WOOD SINKS.

Washington Scientists Made a Most Singular Discovery.

Southern lumbermen take great delight in a story of certain scientific gentlemen who were sent by the government at Washington to study the growth and uses of the bald cypress at a time when cypress lumber was comparatively new to the market. They went direct to a large camp, presented credentials to the superintendent and watched with minute care the processes of cutting the timber and floating it down stream.

Cypress is a light, spongy wood that grows in swamps and absorbs water readily. The scientific gentlemen requested the superintendent to throw some logs into the river separate from the main rafts and followed their progress down stream in a boat. After floating south for some distance the logs with one accord sank. Much surprised, the scientific gentlemen returned and followed another consignment. The phenomenon was repeated; at a certain distance from the camp all the logs sank.

The gentlemen from Washington, being very scientific, did not think to question the unlettered superintendent about the power of cypress to become waterlogged, but after numerous observations and much comparing of notes reported to their department the startling discovery that cypress floated north of a certain parallel of latitude and south of it invariably sank. Of the cause they were not yet certain, but hazarded the suggestion that it might lie in the rotary motion of the earth, increasing in speed as the logs approached the equator until it was powerful enough to draw them under.—Philadelphia North American.

A Horse's Age.

The age of a horse cannot always be told by looking at its teeth. After the eighth year the horse gets no more new teeth, so that this method is useless for a horse more than eight years old. As soon as the set of teeth is complete, however, a wrinkle begins to appear on the edge of the lower eyelid, and another wrinkle is added each year, so that to get the age of a horse more than eight years old you must count the teeth plus the wrinkles.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

A Most Worthy Article.

When an article has been on the market for years and gains friends every year, it is safe to call this medicine a worthy one. Such is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It positively cures coughs and all pulmonary diseases. One of the best known merchants in Mobile, Ala., says: "For five years my family has not been troubled with the winter coughs. We owe this to Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Killed Son and Self.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Bernard Clohr, a Russian laborer, shot and fatally wounded his son, 21 years of age, and then committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid. The son had prevented Clohr from killing his mother, and the father, enraged at this, entered his son's room while the latter lay asleep and shot him twice in the back.

ROYAL Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.

No alum, no phosphate—which are the principal elements of the so-called cheap baking powders—and which are derived from bones, rock and sulphuric acid.

NEW YORK RACKET.

CHEAPEST STORE ON EARTH

HOISERY TALK.

The season has now come when it is necessary for the whole family to wear Shoes, and of course you can't wear Shoes without Stockings, and usually the Stocking bill is more than the Shoe bill. This will not be the case if you buy a standard brand of goods.

We have just received a large shipment of the celebrated BLACK CAT HOISERY for Men, Women and Children, and this brand is too well known to need much talking about. The price commences at 10c and runs up. The Boys' Hose at 15 and 25c wear almost like leather. See the line and try a pair next time you buy.

The Radcliffe Shoe for Ladies'—both button and lace—at $2.50 per pair are the best that money can buy.

We are now showing many new things in Fall and Winter Goods. It will pay you handsomely to do your trading with us, no matter what you need.

PHIFER BROS.,

Phifer's Corner, - Gainesville, Fla.

Don't wait—order Blue Ribbon Lemon and Vanilla today. Absolutely pure, go twice as far and the "Blue Ribbon Flavor" is perfection. Ask for the 25c size.
